

"AMERICAN BABY CASTING CALL" TV PROGRAM, ROLLS OUT NATIONWIDE , STARTING FEBRUARY 2006

NEW YORK (February 3, 2006) - The "American Baby Casting Call," a custom, half-hour television program that is a behind-the-scenes look at the magazine's yearly search for the cutest babies in America, will air on 200 stations nationwide starting February 3rd, announced American Baby Publisher Norma Blatto. The magazine received nearly 20,000 entries for the contest.

The television program will air in major markets around the country, including New York, Los Angeles, Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston, San Francisco, Dallas, Washington DC, and Atlanta. It was produced by Michael Young Media and is distributed by Meredith Productions.

The program chronicles how the winners were chosen, and their grand prize trip to New York City for the magazine's photo shoot.

"'American Baby's Casting Call' is based on a simple consumer insight: Just about all parents believe their baby has what it takes to be a model in American Baby magazine," says Norma Blatto, publisher.

"The Casting Call is a way for our sponsor partners to tap into this highly charged moment-when moms and dads from across the country actually get the opportunity for their little ones to try out for the pages of American Baby. It's a great brand builder for us and a great experiential marketing program for our partners," Blatto continues.

The American Baby Casting Call was sponsored by MAZDA, Babies 'R' Us, Nationwide and Sony.

The five winners of the American Baby contest will be featured in the February 2006 issue of the magazine, in the fashion spread, "Model Kids." They are Alex Liu, 8 ½ months, Atlanta, Georgia; Jacqueline Seijas, 22 months, Whitehall, Pennsylvania; Conner Sleep, 18 months, Fenton, Michigan; Katelyn Cody, 13 months, Grandview, Texas; and Jonas Orange, 22 months, Nazareth, Pennsylvania.

Footage was shot at Casting Call events that took place from August to November at Babies "R" Us locations nationwide and at the winners' photo shoot in New York City.

Each winner was featured on their own page in the magazine, highlighting the latest baby and toddler fashions from Babies "R" Us.
