

MEREDITH NAMES CAREY WITMER ASSOCIATE PUBLISHER OF BETTER HOMES AND GARDENS MAGAZINE

NEW YORK, N.Y., February 10, 2006 - Meredith Corporation (NYSE:MDP) announced today that Carey Witmer has been promoted to Associate Publisher, Advertising for Better Homes and Gardens magazine. Witmer will report directly to Amy Wilkins, publisher of Better Homes and Gardens, which reaches more than 40 million Americans every month.

Witmer, 41, has been with Meredith since 1998 and most recently served as Publisher of Country Home magazine. Previously, Witmer served as Advertising Director of Midwest Living magazine.

"Carey has provided outstanding, spirited sales leadership at Meredith and her promotion to associate publisher of Better Homes and Gardens - our flagship brand - is an acknowledgement of her strong leadership abilities," said Meredith Publishing Group President Jack Griffin. "She has an impressive advertising sales track record and has played a leading role in Country Home's strong advertising performance and brand recognition. She will be a valuable asset to the Better Homes and Gardens team."

Prior to joining Meredith, Witmer served as Group Senior Vice President at Fox Associates, where she generated significant sales increases at a broad range of titles, including Woman's Day, Travel Holiday and Family Life, and also grew advertising at titles such as Home, Elle Décor, Organic Gardening and Eating Well.

Witmer earned a B.A. in liberal arts from the University of Iowa. She will continue to be based at Meredith's 125 Park Avenue location.
