

CHILD MAY 2006 ISSUE HIGHLIGHTS

-Child Editors Available For Interviews-

FAMILY TRAVEL SPECIAL

- Exclusive Survey The 10 Best Family-Friendly Resorts – After examining a wide range of criteria, we reveal which warm-weather properties take catering to kids to an all-new high. (p.109)
- Where the Wild Things Are These North American wildlife tours let kids see animals – from butterflies to bears – in their natural habitats! (p.103)
- Child's Ultimate Guide to Stress Free Planning Six steps to make your next trip smooth. (p.123)

FEATURES

- Family Cars Steering You in the Right Direction – Our auto expert spotlights new safety features and tells how you can save time, money, and fuel. (p.143)
- Babymoos The Hottest Travel Trend for Parents-to-Be – In need of a little pre-baby pampering? These 10 hotels offer romantic and relaxing escapes for expectant moms and dads. (p. 79)
- Dance Fever! A kids' disco party with music, movement, and groovy goodies makes for a memorable birthday bash. (p. 135)

CHILDSTYLE

- Star Watch Check out the gifts and gear celebrity parents are buying. (p.30)
- Shopping Coast to Coast Inside our favorite kids' stores across the country. (p.32)

CHILDSMARTS

- Office Visit Our resident pediatrician calms parents' concerns about children's hair loss, a head-banging habit, and more. (p. 46)
- Which Approach Would You Take? Pleasing a Picky Eater – Readers weigh in on what to do when a toddler won't eat what you serve. (p. 62)
- Should You Spy on Your Child? Our panel of experts and parents debates how you can protect your children in this high-tech age while still respecting their privacy. (p. 67)

BABY BEAT

- Pregnancy News The lowdown on labor coaching and delivery-room docs. (p. 76)

For additional information, Web chats, Q&A's with Child experts and more log onto www.Child.com.

Contact:
Marisa Ollins
212-389-5332
Marisa.ollins@meredith.com