

FAMILY CIRCLE JUNE 2006 ISSUE HIGHLIGHTS

—Family Circle Editors Available For Interviews—

Glass Act -- Page 20

Etch a delicate design of dots, stripes or stars onto a bowl or pitcher, and turn everyday glass into something smashing.

Bedtime Story -- Page 26

When your tween becomes a teen don't lose sleep over how to redecorate. Family Circle has ideas--from paint to pillows--for making sure your kids' rooms grow up, too.

How to Buy a Grill -- Page 34

One-or-four-burner? Griddle or Rotisserie? Get fired up for summer with a Family Circle guide to the hottest models.

Great Gifts for Grads -- Page 42

Cool new MP3 and DVD players, a nifty webcam, a $120 camera with mucho megapixels--check out the latest tech toys for the graduate in your life.

All Together Now -- Page 46

With far-flung families and busy schedules, it's tough to stay connected to your loved ones. Follow Family Circle's crash course to make your next family reunion a success.

Blanket Statements -- Page 74

Kay Gardiner and Ann Shayne weren't satisfied knitting only for family and friends. They wanted their passion to serve a purpose--and they quickly discovered they weren't alone.

Beach Book Club -- Page 81

Family Circle's summer reading list has something for everyone under the sun--from sci-fi to humor to mystery. Even better, all these books can be enjoyed by both kids and adults.

Love the One You're With -- Page 84

Holding on to a strong marriage often means letting go of your urge to control everything. Family Circle shows you how.

Family Health Makovers -- Page 108

As the gatekeeper of your family's well-being, you know that a balanced diet, plenty of exercise and other healthy habits your kids establish now can set a pattern for the rest of their lives. But how much influence do you really have? Plenty. Here, three inspiring moms who took charge and banished bad habits--from too much junk food to smoking in secret--for good.

Weekend Chic -- Page 153

Dressing down on Saturday and Sunday doesn't mean being a fashion don't. Family Circle provides stylish picks for looking great while working out, running errands or just relaxing.

The June issue of Family Circle is available on newsstands May 15, 2006.

Contact:

Marisa Ollins

(212) 389-5332

Marisa.Ollins@meredith.com

---

<https://news.people.inc/2006-04-18-FAMILY-CIRCLE-JUNE-2006-ISSUE-HIGHLIGHTS>