

Fitness February 2007 Issue Highlights

In the February Issue of Fitness Magazine:

Real Women, Real Body Confessions; 30 Days of Workout Motivation; Fit Families' Age-By-Age Guide; What To Feed Your Cold

Features

Sexy Body Shortcuts: You can get your dream shape, and results in ten days, with Fitness' 146 sexy body shortcuts. West Coast Editor and exercise physiologist, Nicole Dorsey-Straff, divulges her all-time favorite (and effective!) belly and butt moves. Page 45

Indulge Without the Bulge—250 Calorie Desserts: Rich brownies, gooey caramel popcorn and decadent mousse cake...spoil your sweet tooth rotten with these delicious and guilt-free recipes. Page 61

“How Running Helped Us Heal”: After their husbands were killed in Iraq, these wives took up running—and found that it helped heal their grief and keep their partner’s legacy alive in a way nothing else could. Page 87

Real Women, Real Body Confessions: Fitness celebrates active, confident women of all shapes and sizes. You’ll be surprised, and inspired, by what they love most about themselves—their cleavage, their calves and their post-baby body. Page 102

Win 30 Days of Workout Motivation: Reel yourself in from the brink of relapse! The most convincing news you’ll ever read about putting yourself first when it comes to achieving your fitness, personal, and psychological goals. Page 108

Smart Recipes To Protect Your Heart Heart disease kills nearly 500,000 women in the US each year. Food Network’s Ellie Krieger, R.D., cooks up 10 tasty dishes that will boost your heart health—guaranteed! Page 116

Beauty/Style

Make Any Beauty Treatment Last There’s nothing like a perfectly coifed mane, a just-out-of-the-spa dewy glow and flawlessly groomed brows. Extend your beauty rituals well beyond their usual expiration date. Page 32

Nutrition

The Ultimate Health Drink: Tea’s superprotective powers have been shown to fight breast cancer, heart disease and help you to lose weight. Learn how flavonoids can make a huge difference in your health and find the brew that’s right for you. Page 66

Batali’s Healthy (and Satisfying) Baked Penne with Eggplant Healthy cooking with (yes!) Mario Batali. Of Food Network fame and one of New York’s most acclaimed Italian chefs, Batali lightens up one of his favorite ultrarich fares exclusively for Fitness. Page 72

Health

How To Prevent a Misdiagnosis: Experts say that up to 1 in 4 people who are misdiagnosed die because of it. Fitness shows you how to make certain you know what ails you, how to approach your MD to get the treatment you need—and when to stop worrying. Page 75

Fit Families: February blues? Fitness' new monthly get-moving guide provides an age-by-age exercise manual for active kids and parents. Page 80

What To Feed Your Cold: May the best cold and flu Rx be...in your kitchen? Here, five foods scientifically proven to help kick those cold and flu bugs. Page 82

Life

The Single Girl's V-Day Survival Kit Fitness staffers offer suggestions to get you through Valentine's Day, including what to rent, what to eat, what to carry and what to wax! Page 92

The February issue of Fitness is on newsstands January 9, 2007.

Launched in 1992 and reaching 6.8 million readers, Fitness is today's preeminent lifestyle magazine for the Mind, Body, and Spirit. Editors are available for interviews.

www.fitnessmagazine.com

Contacts:

Marisa Ollins
212-389-5332
marisa.ollins@meredith.com

Anna De Souza
212-551-7072
anna.desouza@meredith.com

<https://news.people.inc/2007-01-16-Fitness-February-2007-Issue-Highlights>