

Family Circle May 2007 Issue Highlights

—Family Circle Editors Available For Interviews—

The Mod Squad; pg. 24

Who says contemporary design has to feel cold? One couple shows off their family-friendly classic 50's home.

Under the Sink; pg. 40

The space under the kitchen sink operates like a black hole for cleaning supplies and other things. Here are some tips for controlling the clutter.

How to Buy a Lawn Mower; pg. 50

Push model or self-propelled? Gas or electric? Our shopping tips ensure you won't get clipped.

Hope and Joy; pg. 56

One family redefines the meaning of open adoption by welcoming their daughter's birth mother into their family.

The Upside of Online; pg. 64

Check out some of the positive things kids are doing on the internet.

Tech 911; pg. 92

Computer acting up? We've enlisted the Geek Squad to give you a download of road-tested tips, tricks and shortcuts.

Make Money By Doing Good; pg. 84

Buying stock in socially responsible companies is a great way to give and get back.

A Prom Guide for Parents; pg. 104

Party of the year or parental nightmare? Family Circle has a guide to help you maintain your sanity – and your teen's.

The Truth About Time Shares; pg. 119

What you need to know about this popular vacation option.

Peaceful Parenting; pg. 122

The best parents in the world go head-to-head about the kids sometimes. Here's how you can turn arguments into smart solutions.

Is That Safe to Eat?; pg. 160

Simple strategies that guarantee safe meals for you and your family.

Simplify Your Life; pg. 183

Uncover feelings that keep you attached to stuff you don't need and create space for what you really love.

No-Stress Weeknight Suppers; pg. 219

We've done all the planning for you! Here are two weeks of family-pleasing meals along with a rundown of the groceries you'll need.

The May issue of Family Circle is available on newsstands on April 17th.

Contact:

Marisa Ollins

(212) 389-5332

Marisa.Ollins@meredith.com

<https://news.people.inc/2007-03-28-Family-Circle-May-2007-Issue-Highlights>