FRESH LOOKS: New Ways to Use Color, Collections, and Classic Quilts

STORE IT WITH STYLE – Page 44

Most collectibles and pretty things can do more than just be admired. Country Home shares six ways to use them to organize your life – beautifully. Try trying a vintage apron around a door (sew on fabric pockets if it doesn't have any) for a handy organizer and vintage addition to any room.

TOOLS COOKS LOVE – Page 48

Behind every great recipe is a beloved tool – prized for making the preparation faster, easier, and more fun. Six top chefs share their favorite tools and the recipes they create with them with Country Home. Use them to whip up Indian Lamb and Sweet Pepper Fry, Slow-Simmered Pork and Pasta with Garlic-Seasoned Broccoli Rabe and Risotto with Squash and Sage.

2007 COUNTRY HOME PORTLAND SHOWHOME – Page 54

The mossy woodlands and dramatic peaks around Country Home's Oregon Showhome inspire the design, an earth-friendly attitude mixed with fresh country style. Learn how to pick a palette for your home, be inventive with quilts, create outdoor living spaces and let your own personal style shine through.

PORTABLE WINTER PICNIC – Page 82

Rather than cowering indoors when temperatures drop, face it head-on with this portable winter picnic that packs toasty treats with warming sips. Bring a portable open fire pit/barbeque and feast on Spinach Dip with Veggies, Tomato Basil Soup, Fire-Grilled Cheeses, Grilled Challah Bread Fruit Pies, White Hot Chocolate and Mexican Cocoa.

The February issue of Country Home is on newsstands now.
