

Meredith Expands Coastal Living With New Subscription Model

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 19, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- As a result of resounding consumer demand and success at newsstand, Meredith Corporation (NYSE: MDP; <http://www.meredith.com/>) announced today that it has begun selling subscriptions for Coastal Living at www.Magazine.Store/CoastalLiving. The Winter 2020 issue is the first issue of the premium quarterly available for home delivery via subscription. At the same time, Coastal Living continues to have a strong newsstand presence with a $12.99 cover price.

"We are giving the passionate readers of Coastal Living what they want – the opportunity to secure annual and biannual subscriptions to this beloved brand," said Doug Olson, President, Meredith Magazines. "With a substantial customer base that is looking for premium, high-quality niche content, Coastal Living is a good example of a consumer-driven product with what I'd call an analog paywall."

An annual subscription costs $20 for four issues and a two-year subscription is $30. The expanded Coastal Living franchise – which already boasts CoastalLiving.com; robust social channels on Instagram, Facebook, Twitter and Pinterest; and successful brand extensions that include Coastal Living Communities and the Coastal Living Home Collection with Universal Furniture – continues to be produced at Meredith's Birmingham, AL content center with oversight from Southern Living Editor in Chief Sid Evans.

Evans commented, "This return to subscriptions is a strong testament to the power of the Coastal Living brand and the unique product we're delivering to consumers. If you love the beach lifestyle, Coastal Living is a must buy. There's just nothing else like it."

In 2018, Meredith transitioned Coastal Living from a subscription magazine to a quarterly newsstand-only bookazine after it acquired the brand in its purchase of Time Inc.

"This direct-to-consumer model is ideal – it provides a high-quality product to passionate enthusiasts and at the same time, it's a strong, profitable business," Olson added. He said that Meredith is open over time to adding premium-priced subscriptions for other brands which have recently become newsstand-only quarterlies, such as Cooking Light and Traditional Home.
