

Southern Living Announces New Season Of Biscuits & Jam Podcast

Guest Lineup Includes Harry Connick Jr., Loretta Lynn, and Jon Batiste

NEW YORK and BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 30, 2021 /PRNewswire/ -- Meredith Corporation's (NYSE: MDP) Southern Living announces that the new season of its popular Biscuits & Jam podcast launches today. In each weekly episode, Sid Evans, editor-in-chief of Southern Living, talks to legendary musicians about their hometowns, their big breaks, Southern culture, and the Southern food they love – both at home and on the road.

The first episode of the new season, available today, features Grammy- and Emmy-award winning musician and actor Harry Connick Jr. talking about growing up in New Orleans, his favorite places to eat, his new spiritual album and how he and his daughter have shown their gratitude to essential workers across the country over the last year. With new episodes every Tuesday, Biscuits & Jam is available on Apple Podcasts, Spotify, and on your favorite listening platforms.

This season's first four scheduled guests and episode airdates are as follows, with more to be announced:

March 30:	Harry Connick Jr.
April 6:	Loretta Lynn
April 13:	Lee Brice
April 20:	Jon Batiste

Sid Evans said, "Biscuits & Jam is all about having thoughtful conversations with artists and icons and giving them the space to open up and share their Southern roots in very personal ways. The interviews this season have been especially engaging as they talk about food, family, music, and faith."
